OUR COMMANDMENTS

OUR DO'S OF SELF-GOVERNANCE

- ✓ The earth is your mother and your partner. Care for her for the benefit of all & your next 7 generations. Come into relationship with her.
- ✓ Honor all your relatives: the tree/standing people, the stone people, the furred, 4 legged, the finned, swimmers, the fliers, the winged, the feathered, and your fellow 2 leggeds. Hold them all a profound mutual respect and easy-going tolerance.
- ✓ Open to your soul as a facet of Great Spirit/the God process/the Tao.
- ✓ All life is sacred. Live sacredly, be sacred.
- ✓ Receive from your mother earth what she so freely offers for your health, comfort and prosperity, and receive only what you need, not more.
- ✓ Do what needs to be done for the good of all.
- ✓ Give constant thanks to Great Spirit & your soul for each new day.
- ✓ Be willing to not know and be curious about perspectives other than your own
- ✓ Enjoy and live your destiny to the fullest, leave no tracks, no waste.
- ✓ Be impeccable with your word.
- ✓ Always do your best.
- ✓ Listen, hear, see, read with a skepticism that says "everything is inaccurate and incomplete".
- ✓ Keep the peace, know that you are actually living with each other.
- ✓ Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
- ✓ So long as it does not take away another's freedom, life, property, or do other such harm, do what you like and tolerate others living their free will also.

- ✓ Pool resources to enable everything to be done as quickly and efficiently as possible.
- ✓ Most work within the Universitas is done in a relaxed, spontaneous way by either sex.
- ✓ Know that your rights are any action that does not cause harm to living beings or their property.
- ✓ Do live guided by natural/cosmic law.

OUR COMMANDMENTS

OUR DONT'S OF SELF-GOVERNANCE

- × Don't take anything personal
- × Don't make assumptions
- × Don't bring into our sacred temple/land pesticides, herbicides, bleach, commercial laundry detergents, cleaners, soaps.
- × Don't seek licensure, permits, registration, certifications, 501c3 status, insurances, copywrites, patents.
- × Don't murder/assault
- × Don't rape
- × Don't steal
- × Don't coerce

THE ART OF ACTUALLY LIVING TOGETHER

Even a man with a hundred horses may need to ask another for a whip.

-Ladakhi Saying

Co-existence- its more important to keep good relations in your class, than to focus only on self-interest.

Every harmful action a human being is capable of taking is a form of theft.

Licenses, permits, etc

Are claims that a group of people who call themselves “government” have been given the “right” to prevent others from exercising specific behaviors, (even if the behaviors cause no harm to others or their property) unless those others petition (beg) or pay the “government” for permission to be allowed to exercise those behaviors. This amounts to the claim that your rights are merely “privileges” that may be granted or taken away by the government based on their preference or discretion. There is no such thing as the right to stop someone from exercising a right since rights cause no harm. The claim over the rights of another person is called slavery. Therefore licensing, permits, certifications/registrations are merely euphemisms for slavery, regardless of the justifications made by those who claim such practices are necessary for the common good. Since no individual anywhere on earth has the right to claim ownership of another person’s rights, such behavior can never be delegated to a group and called “right”. Therefore, all permits, licenses, registrations, certifications are violations/adulterations of natural/cosmic law.

On 501c3’s for “tax benefits”

Taxation is the claim that a group of people who call themselves government have been given the “right” to confiscate an arbitrarily chosen percentage of the product of another individual’s labor (a form of property) whether or not the other agrees to share that product voluntarily. Taxation is enforced by the threat of violence (behavior resulting in bodily harm) or imprisonment (the taking away of physical freedom of movement) if those from whom the product being seized attempt to resist the confiscation. This practice is always “justified” (made into a right) by those who claim that such a practice is necessary and required to “uphold the common good”. If we define slavery as the involuntary confiscation of 100% of the product of the labor of another human being, we can clearly see that there is no magical percentage to which we could lower this number (other than 0%) that would no longer constitute slavery. If we are being honest with ourselves, taxation is just a euphemism for theft, violence and slavery, the practices upon which it is actually based. Since no individual on earth has the “right” to claim ownership of the product of another’s labor, such behavior can never be delegated to a group and called a right. So, all forms of taxation are a violation/adulteration of Natural/cosmic law.

Our Drug/Alcohol/Tobacco “policy”

Prohibition is the claim that a group of people, who form an organization have been given the right to prevent others from putting any given substance into their own bodies, and if those others refuse to comply with those terms, they will be fined or dismissed. It is self-evident that if an individual's body is actually their own property, then that individual always maintains the natural right to decide what will or will not be put into their own property, their body. Understanding this, we can easily see that the claim of the “right” to command what will or will not be put into the body of another person amounts to a claim of ownership upon the other person's body. The claim of ownership upon another person's body is called slavery.

So if you

Smoke cigarettes- then please be responsible for your butts, and do not throw them onto mother earth just everywhere. Do be respectful of those who don't smoke, and don't make them breath your smoke, that is also called slavery. We do urge you to grow your own tobacco, for smoking. Smoke marijuana- same thing.

If any habits affect your participation, then we will address that.

OATH TO YOURSELF AND OWL UNIVERSITAS

*I will live in the present moment.
I will not obsess about the past or the future
I will cultivate the art of making connections, living with my fellow student/participants/initiates
I will my attention to how my life is intimately related to all life and the seasons
I will actively step into relationship with nature, all of life.
I will spell out my days with gratitude
I will see no one as "other"
I will welcome all with graciousness
I will cultivate the skill of deep listening.
I will see the sacred in everything and everybody.*

Your Oath as an Idea hero/freedom warrior Initiate/student/participant.

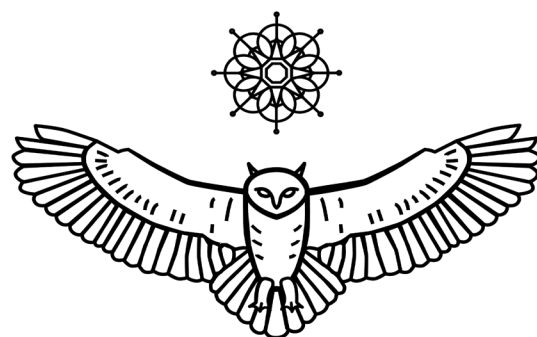

This is more than a promise or a contract, it is your word, a statement made from your being. To break an oath is to break faith and trust with yourself.

*I formally now declare my commitment and hold myself accountable for initiating and continuing a new stage (era?) of unlearning & relearning for myself that is in harmony with the care of life.
I allow myself to let go of all the known structures of belief and identity to embark on the journey of the discovery of my true self, allowing the spirit to manifest truth and knowing that I'm in loving accompanying hands that will support me, that have been on this path and that as the owl tribe guarantee that flight into a new era of humanity is possible.*

I make this oath and pact with the inner, middle and outer forces of creation to let them know I am now available to be guided by them, that I now recognize their existence and ask for their help, and that I allow myself to let go of the old structure of domination, domesticated and farmed human to retake my true free human form

With this oath I allow myself to see once again the sacred inner fire within me and with it my path of freedom where I shall receive the guidance for my self-governance and discipline that will allow me to have the continuance and growth needed in the process of cleaning myself away from the energetic mind and physical ties to everything that takes greatness, health, freedom and power away from me.

With this oath and through the inner fire that grows as I work on my transformation I allow myself to become the Idea hero/Freedom Warrior that I have always awaited and save myself and humanity from the obsolete existence we have been tricked on believing is the only existence possible. With this, I open the gates to true spiritual transformation and allow myself to embark on a life journey that will fulfill all of my heart's desires and with that heal and complete everything that was missing in me.
